
USE OF DIVISION NAME IN ADVERTISING

The Board disallows the use of the School Division's name in connection with advertising material published by various companies.

Exceptions may be authorized by the Board of Trustees. Partnership situations, as approved under the Partnership administrative procedure may be considered as exceptions in this regard but the exception will have to be defined when the partnership is approved.